

Offer Presentation

Due to the probability that various family members may be on the mountain and that others live in areas away from the ranch, the presentation of offers by the listing agent may take as much as several days until the necessary parties can be contacted and/or assembled for final decisions and signatures. Every effort will be made by the listing agent to process offers as quickly as possible.